ILLUSTRATION CONCEPT ART AND ENTERTAINMENT

1998-2019

I have nearly 20 years of experience as a visual story-teller in the realms of concept art/visual development and Illustration. During that period, I lived and worked with clients in diverse locales such as Japan, Australia, Germany, Spain, San Francisco, LA, and Santa Fe NM. I currently work as a concept design lead for Meow Wolf entertainment, where I produce work for animation, film, and print/illustration as well as theme park design. My work has appeared in print and other forms around the globe as well as being featured in the New York Times and Spectrum: The Best in Contemporary Fantastic Art.

INDEPENDENT WORK

2005- Present

In addition to freelance opportunities and University work, I labor actively and passionately on visual storytelling projects, like my creator-owned web-comic Everyone Does Their Chores in Polyuna, or my Sci-fi world building project, The Moons of Zahein.

Check out these projects on my project launch page HERE.

UNIVERSITY WORK

2005 - Present

For the last 10+ years, I have worked as a College educator and art director in the visual and commercial arts. In 2015 I was recruited by SFUAD to team up with Disney Artist David Gardner to build and run their 120 unit Digital Arts and Visual Development/concept art program. Other University work includes lecture and curriculum development at CSUF, AISD, AIOC, and Cypress College.

EDUCATION

1996 - Present

I received two terminal degrees (MA, & MFA) in the field of the visual and commercial arts and have had a rich and diverse art education domestically and abroad at:

- Watts Atelier \(San Diego, Ca\)
- LA figurative Academy \(Los Angeles, Ca\)
- Cal State University Fullerton
- Humboldt State University \(Arcata Ca\)
- Concept Design Academy \(Pasadena Ca\)
- University of Western Sydney
